

Margie Parikh, C.Dir. MBA, CFP

Principal, On Governance Consulting, & Board Director

Margie brings international, retail, finance, capital projects, and risk governance experience to the board room. By being curious, independent, and bold, she fosters good governance, driving value and results.

Margie serves on the boards of Camosun College, BC Oil and Gas Commission, and Oikocredit Canada. She is the former Chair of CISV International, and of MEC, Canada's beloved outdoor equipment retailer.

A Chartered Director, Margie's qualifications also include an MBA from Columbia University, the Certified Financial Planner designation, and NFP and Crown governance certifications from the Institute of Corporate Directors. At home in a global setting, she helps boards and senior executives develop resilience to navigate and capitalize on opportunity in an increasingly fast-changing environment.

Margie is a Regional Ambassador for Women Get on Board, a coach for G(irls)20 Girls on Boards, and a member of the 30% Club, all of which strive for greater representation of women in governance.

Boards, the great outdoors, and dark chocolate keep her days filled on the beautiful coast of Vancouver Island.
