ABOUT SUSTAINALYTICS

Sustainalytics is a leading ESG and corporate governance research, ratings and analytics firm. We help investors around the world with the development and implementation of responsible investment strategies. The firm partners with institutional investors, pension plans, and asset managers that integrate environmental, social and governance information and assessments into their investment decisions.

Headquartered in Amsterdam, Sustainalytics has offices in Boston, New York, Bucharest, Frankfurt, London, Paris, Sydney, Timisoara, Toronto and Tokyo with almost 400 staff members, all with various levels of expertise across the ESG and corporate governance fields. In fact, through the Thomson Reuters Extel's IRRRI survey, investors selected Sustainalytics as the best independent responsible investment research firm for three consecutive years, 2012 through 2014. In 2015 and 2016, Sustainalytics was named among the top three firms for both ESG and Corporate Governance research.

We are a growing firm with a broadening global footprint and an increasingly important role within the investment decision-making process. Come join us and work alongside some of the best professionals in the business! www.sustainalytics.com

POSITION PURPOSE

Sustainalytics is seeking a (Deputy) Product Manager for its Corporate Governance research and ratings product. Our corporate governance research evaluates the quality and soundness of a company's governance structures, practices and behavior for a broad global universe of corporations. It provides Sustainalytics' investor clients with a unique insight on corporate governance related risks. The product Manager is responsible for the overall business success of our corporate governance product and will ensure that our services evolve in line with client and market needs. As part of the Product Strategy and Development (PSD) team, the candidate will join a vibrant community of Product Managers, represent the product internally and externally, and drive its development. A primary focus of the role will be to support sales and marketing efforts and to further strengthen Sustainalytics' visibility as a leading corporate governance research provider.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Represent the product externally, responding to client and sales inquiries and participating in networking events;
- Collaborate with the Client Relations/Sales team to develop and support implementing a sales and marketing strategy for the product;
- Develop and maintain a strategic plan (roadmap) that has broad cross-team support on how the corporate governance research and ratings product should evolve;
- Ensure the effective execution of the product roadmap, liaising with internal stakeholders and acting as the project manager for most product innovation releases;
- Compile and maintain product documentation for internal and external stakeholders;
- Collaborate with the CG Research Managers and ICT to ensure effective and timely research execution and delivery.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Master's degree in related discipline (business, economics, finance or law) or Bachelor's degree with relevant experience;
- At least 5-7 years of experience in corporate governance research and consulting, corporate governance research sales or other related fields;
- Experience in product management or commercial/client facing role considered an asset;
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills;
- Ability to work cross-functionally with ease and manage competing interests;
- Strong project management and execution skills;
- Strong analytical skills and creative, problem-solving attitude; decisiveness;
- Alignment with Sustainalytics' mission, vision and values.
